Welcome!

On behalf of the City of Tulsa, I'm honored to welcome you to our city. As you arrive, I hope you get a chance to read this Official Tulsa Visitor Guide, whether digitally or in person, produced by Visit Tulsa of Tulsa Regional Tourism, a division of the Tulsa Regional Chamber.

This helpful Spring 2023 guide was curated specifically for this season and provides a snapshot of the great experiences Tulsa has to offer.

As you flip through the next 40-or-so pages, I hope you discover the many exciting events, attractions, and experiences that make our city so unique. From major spring events to unforgettable dining options, nightlife, live music, and family-friendly activities, you'll find plenty of inspiration for how to make the most of your visit.

And be sure to keep your phone handy; the QR codes embedded throughout this guide can uncover even more, from unique springtime celebrations to season schedules of your soon-to-be-favorite Tulsa sports teams.

I hope your visit is packed with one-of-a-kind experiences and that when you leave, your first instinct is to come right back.

With gratitude,

G. T. Bynum

EVERYONE'S TULSA

This community simply couldn't be as amazing as it is without each unique culture and identity that make up the whole. Proudly, Tulsa has something for everyone, because it is comprised of everyone. With great sincerity, we invite you to explore the diversity of culture seeping from every facet of the city.

As you navigate this guide, you will find helpful icons throughout ensuring that some of what makes Tulsa so great doesn't go unnoticed.
